MPP John Eakins now full time Lib. critic on Tourism

Opposition leader Stuart Smith has announced that Victoria-Haliburton MPP John Eakins has been appointed Liberal critic on Tourism on a full-time basis. "In view of the growing importance of tourism to the economy of Ontario, we recommended earlier this year in the Libreal Task Force on Tourism that tourism should be a separate ministry," Dr. Smith said.

As task force chairman, Mr. Eakins won the confidence of tourist operators throughout the province, and gained a clear understanding of the problems and opportunities facing Ontario's tourism industry.

Cow destroyed after being hit by van in heavy fog

Minden OPP report the following activity for the period of Oct. 9-15. During this time there were three break-ins, three messages delivered, two cottages found insecure and two persons charged with liquor violations.

On Wednesday morning around 4:20 a.m. on Hwy. 519, just south of South Lake Road, Bruce Gillis 27, of Peterborough struck a cow in the fog. The animal owned by Carl Dugan of Lochlin apparently was standing in the northbound lane.

Gillis' 1978 van received an estimated $1000 damage. The cow had to be destroyed at the scene and its value was set at $400. PC Barry Connelly.

An estimated $1400 damage was set in a two-car collision on Hwy. 35 north of Buttermilk Falls early Monday evening.

Douglas Gayton 27, of Scarborough was southbound on 35 when he attempted to pass another southbound car driven by Anthony Choi 38, of Mississauga, that was about to make a left turn. The two cars collided and Gayton has been charged by police with careless driving.—PC Weldon Popp.

Kinsmen plan new Carnival

The first meeting of the Minden Kinsmen Winter Carnival committee was held Monday night, Oct. 2nd. Kinsmen Don Crowe has accepted the chairmanship of this very important mid-winter event, which has become the Hi-Lands number one showcase of winter sporting events, coupled with our Hi'Land hospitality.

Chairman Don presented his primary format for the carnival program to the Kinsmen executive, with an informal discussion of the anticipated events. It was an evening of finding out the opinions of others of what was good for the carnival last year, and what could be improved on—what went over and what did not. The groundwork was definitely laid out for the upcoming event. Chairman Don has scheduled his meetings with his chairmen, and a lot of hard work and organization was stressed as a necessity between now and carnival time.

The main assurance that Chairman Don wanted emphasized to everyone at this time, is that the Minden Kinsmen Winter Carnival will be held on the weekend of January 26, 27, 28 so circle that date on your calendar as that's your date with the Haliburton Hi'Lands for our hospitality while enjoying our wonderland of winter.

More than 100 guests turned up to honour Mr. Tallman including MP Bill Scott and MPP John Eakins. Also on hand were the Wardens of Peterborough, Victoria and Hastings Counties. Police officers assaulted by Haliburton man after arrest

HALIBURTON — Early Thursday evening OPP stopped a car for a routine check which revealed a liquor violation and warrants for the driver.

Richard Wayne Shaw 27, of Haliburton was arrested and then fled in his car to his residence. At his home, a scuffle broke out between Shaw and Constable Jim Solway and Roy Telford. Shaw was re-arrested and is at Lindsay jail for a hearing on Monday, Oct. 16th. He has been charged with having liquor available, escaping lawful custody and assault of a police officer.

Barn Owl assaults officer

MINDEN — While on his patrol around Minden on Friday evening just after dark, Constable Jim Solway was struck by a misguided barn owl that flew through his open cruiser window. The owl then thought better of staying in the front seat with the startled constable so retreated to the rear seat.

The owl was turned over to Conservation Officer D. Smith and was checked over and found to be in good health other than being slightly dazed.

Human Rights Commission to appeal girls status

The Ontario Human Rights Commission today announced its decision to seek an appeal from the judgment of the Supreme Court of Ontario in the cases of Gail Cummings of Huntsville, Ont., and the Ontario Minor Hockey Association and Brent Bannerman and the Ontario Rural Softball Association.

The Supreme Court ruled that Section 2 of the Ontario Human Rights Code, which prohibits discrimination in access to accommodation services and facilities available in a place to which the public is customarily admitted because of sex, does not apply in the case of a young girl who is denied membership on a boys' minor hockey or softball team.

Boards of Inquiry held last year under the Code decided in the Bannerman case that girls aged up to 11 should be admitted to any softball team for which they are qualified to play, in the Cummings case, that minor hockey teams should be integrated at all age levels.

Thinking Slim

BY JEAN NIDETCH

Many of you who've reached goal weight will appreciate the "peril" I'm going to discuss. And those of you en route can keep it in mind for future reference.

When I finally "abandoned" 72 pounds, I can remember how delicious it was to have other people notice. How marvelous you look, they cried! What lovely bones you have — who would have suspected?

I'd beam and thank them and consider all the time and effort I'd spent getting trim well spent.

But often, along with the congratulations, came encouragement no former fatty needs.

For example, soon after I reached my goal weight, I attended a cousin's wedding. At the reception, I was eyeing the table laden with every dish imaginable when the mother of the bride came over.

"Jean, why aren't you eating?" she cried. "You're thin now, you don't have to worry about your weight. Besides, how much harm can a little taste do?"

With that, she grabbed my plate and piled it high with cream cheese rolls, miniature lasagnas, all things fried and creamed until the plate disappeared from view.

Then she was off to "feed" her other guests and I was left holding the plate. For an instant, as the cream cheese beckoned and the aroma of the lasagna wafted up enticingly, I thought, maybe she's right? How much harm can one splurge do? Then, before I could take the first bite, an extremely heavy woman brushed past me with a plate no different from mine.

That's how much harm, I thought, horrified. That kind of thinking — and eating — was what got me fat in the first place. If I start repeating my old habits, I'll be back where I started before you can say dinner for two.

So I put down my plate and made up another with things I could enjoy fearlessly — including one tiny lasagna.

They mean well, these "you don't have to worry" food pushers. And they're partially right. Once you're thin — even before you get there — you don't have to worry. You don't even have to deprive yourself of everything. But you do have to think about what you're eating.

So smile sweetly and thank them — they mean well, after all — but then follow your own good counsel.

Staying thin is the object, once you've gotten there, isn't it? Otherwise, why go to the bother of getting there?

Chamber of Commerce:

New Board for 78-79 elected Highlander award presented

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce held its annual dinner/business meeting last Wednesday evening with over 100 members and guests present at Wig-A-Mog Inn on Lake Kashagawigamog.

A social hour started the evening off, followed by dinner and the business portion of the annual meeting. President Dennis Casey introduced the head table guests which included MPP John Eakins. Mr. Eakins said a few words on tourism in the Province and the need for continued promotion by the Chamber to attract tourists to the Highlands.

After dinner, a new board of directors were elected when more than 12 people are nominated. As was the case this year, 14 people were nominated for the 12 member board.

Voting by ballot, directors for the coming year are: Barb Bolen, Haliburton School of Fine Arts; Tim Casey, Shamrock Drillers; Ed Elias, Loralea Lodge; Rhonda Elstone, Elstone Construction; Bruce Henry, Halimar Lodge; John Hogg, Mr. Fogg's Fine Foods; Ann Lee, Silver Eagle Cottages; Marshall Leighton, Marshall Leighton Real Estate; Don Nye, Wagon Wheel Motel; Bob Patton, North Shore Lawn and Garden; Bill Smith, Elephant Lake Lodge and Jim McLean of Air Haliburton.

Following the election of the new board, President Casey then asked Gary McKnight to present the Highlander of the Year award. Mr. McKnight related to the large audience a long list of achievements this special person has made to the community and then asked that Leonard Salvatori step forward and accept a plaque on behalf of the Chamber and its membership.

Mr. Salvatori thanked everyone present and said that he loved the community and enjoyed helping out whenever possible. He is a member of several clubs in Haliburton and operates Curry Motors body shop in the village.

President Casey then called on Rex Boice to present the Honourary Membership award to another fine individual in the community and after a short introduction, Mr. Boice called on Ronald Curry. A former Reeve and operator of Curry Motors in Haliburton, Mr. Curry jokingly related stories about the old days and added that without the work of the Chamber in the Highlands we would have nothing.

With the business over, tables and chairs were cleared in preparation for the dance which followed another successful meeting for the Haliburton Chamber of Commerce.

Minden Kinsmen Club hold CF Night at Wagon Wheel

MINDEN — Last Monday night at the Wagon Wheel Motel, the Kinsmen Club of Minden held a Cystic Fibrosis Night, with a slide presentation by CF Zone C representative Larry Amyotte and the highlight of the evening, seven Kin actually consuming the pills that CF children must take at each meal.

CF chairman for the Minden club this year is Tom Prentice, who instigated the night, standing above left, explains to his fellow Kin just what a Cystic child must go through to stay alive. For each ounce of food eaten by a cystic child he must eat eight capsules, and as you can see by the cupful held by Kin Jim Schlosser, top right, the capsules are mighty big.

The pills are taken to break up the thick mucus in the lungs that impedes normal breathing. They also are ingested to help produce enzymes necessary for food absorption, in place of glands that do not function properly. One in every 1800 children born in Canada has CF.

CF patients are now able to go on holidays like any normal person thanks to the invention of a portable compressor invented by Dr. Douglas Crozier of the Hospital for Sick Children.

This compressor would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs and the hundreds of thousands of dollars they have raised since they took on the charity, Canadian Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

There are about 700 confirmed cystics in Ontario. It costs each of these patients $7 a day for vitamins, enzymes and other drugs to stay alive. CF rep. Larry Amyotte, who visited Dr. Crozier at Sick Kids, asked him if the Kinsmen Clubs went out and raised him $1 million would that be enough to find a cure for CF? Dr. Crozier said no. He went on to say that the Kinsmen Clubs should continue to raise the money in the way they are doing now. "We have the key, he said, all we need now is to continue our research so we can put the key in the door."

Dr. Crozier started Camp Couchiching a few years ago and it costs $900 a month for each child, part of which is paid for by the government. At the camp their is a councillor for every two children. Besides the portable compressor that these children must use three times a day, they also ingest drugs through a Nabulizer for 20 minutes three times a day. They spend 45 to 60 minutes a day on the compressor which is known as a mechanical Percussor.

Think small

by Jim Smith

A Dumb Question?

What's going on here? Are we in a recession – or is the economy experiencing reasonable growth?

Now that may seem like a dumb question, a lot like standing in the sunlight and asking if it's raining. But the economists don't seem to know the answer. So how can the rest of us, lowly uninformed slobs that we are, hope to have any insight?

Let's forget, for the moment, about whether the economy is in good shape or not. More important is the disturbing fact that none of the so-called experts seems to know the answer with any amount of certainty.

Up and down, around and around. Business can be booming one minute and disastrous the next. We haven't experienced this kind of economic instability in decades.

And the small business sector is getting clobbered.

At the best of times, it isn't easy to be a small business proprietor. Even brief recessions can prove to be fatal. Unless the firm has solid financial backing, there is no cushion to see it through the lean times.

When the small firm fails, the owner doesn't suffer alone. Employees are thrown out of work. The government loses tax revenues. Suppliers are cut off from a source of income. And on and on.

The damage can be minimized, though. A business failure is seldom a personal failure. With every unsuccessful business venture, the entrepreneur acquires knowledge and skills. These skills are invaluable in future business ventures – if the entrepreneur can be convinced to move into another business investment.

The trick, then, is to ensure that the entrepreneur will have adequate incentive to start another business if the original firm fails. And, since studies have shown that about 60% of the investment capital comes from the entrepreneur personally, another 30% originates within the proprietor's family and close friends and only about 10% comes from outside sources, the most valuable step would obviously be to bolster the incentive structure that invites entrepreneurs, their families and friends to lay out their own funds.

The Canadian Federation of Independent Business regards establishment of a more attractive small business investment climate as one of Canada's more pressing issues. With that in mind, the Federation has recommended two major federal tax amendments: a 100% tax write-off for business investment losses in small firms and exemption from capital gains taxes on shares of Canadian-controlled firms held for at least five years. The first measure would reduce the personal risk; the second would increase potential profits.

Canada can't afford the destruction of small firms caused by economic instability. Some measures to create stability are overdue.

Calling a spade an instrument for manual excavation is what keeps a lot of political hacks pulling down a check?

LITTLE HAWK RESORT

R.R. 2, MINDEN, ONT. K0M 2K0

September 18, 1978.

The Municipal election for the township of Stanhope will be held on Monday November 13th, 1978. The advance poll will be held on Saturday November 4th, 1978. Poll Division No. 20 - Club 35.

Two years ago when Betty and I purchased Little Hawk Resort, one of the first to introduce themselves and welcome us to the area was Bill and Audrey Barber, permanent residents of Little Hawk Lake. Since this first meeting, we have come to know Bill as a good friend with a straight forward manner, a man who will speak out for his rights, and for those of his neighbours. A man who will not back down on any issue he may believe in and as a resident on the lake, is sincerely concerned with the surrounding environment - lake pollution, water level, etc.

As Mr. S. Nesbitt, our present Reeve, will not seek office this year, Mr. Barber will run for the position of Reeve for the Township of Stanhope. I know that Bill will do an outstanding job as Reeve, and that property owners could not expect better representation than Mr. Barber will offer. We therefore have no hesitation supporting Bill and we urge you, as a property owner in Stanhope, to take the time to vote, and support Mr. Barber in the forthcoming election.

Sincerely,

Gordon & Betty Bennett

SPORTS

Carnarvon Lanes Bowling

CARNARVON — On Wednesday evening in the Men's commercial league, Ronnie Robinson came up with a sparkling effort, rolling singles of 302, 358 and 275 for a great 935 triple, highest in the league in more than two years. The effort on Ronnie's part lifted his Modern Electric team to an 18 pt evening.

The West Guilford Recreation six vacated the cellar for the first time this season, picking up 17 pts on the strength of veteran bowler Wes Stata. Wes got the team rolling early with a 310 first game. The Recreation boys now stand third with 61 pts, while Rockcliffe Hotel dropped to fifth with 59 and Nor-Photo dropped all the way to the bottom from third place with 54 pts.

Peterborough Lumber continues to lead by 12 pts despite an off evening that saw the Lumbermen amass only 12 pts for a league leading 87, their lowest output of the season. Second is Ingoldsby who were led to a 17 pt evening by Don Hicks who rolled 307, 227, 222 for 756. Ingoldsby has 75 pts and third is Modern Electric with 70.

Wally Crofts running away with Ingoldsby

The Ingoldsby league is extremely competitive from second to sixth places, but it appears first place Wally Crofts will have no trouble winning the first series. With six weeks left in the first series, Crofts has jumped into a 13 pt lead with 38 pts. Four teams are tied for second with 25 pts, Bruce O'Brien, Walt Ackerblade, John Saunders and Gord Darby. One pt further back is Eric Burk.

HAPPY GANG LEAD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The team calling themselves the Happy Gang are presently leading the Wednesday afternoon mixed league by only one pt, 18-17 over the Leftovers. Right behind them at 16 are the Slow Pokes, who promise to get faster as the season progresses, then comes the Hot Rods at 14 followed by the Odd Balls with 11 and All Strikes with 8.

Bill Barber leads the league in average with 215 with Harry Henderson at 214. Linda Morrison, one of the finest lady bowlers in the association sits on top with a 230 average. Ev Stata is second with 206.

ART BEATTY PULLS AWAY IN COMBINES

Art Beatty and his team in the Tuesday Combines have started to pull away in league standings. With 22 pts Beatty's six now have a seven pt lead over runner-up Harry Baker and eight up on third place Eva Piper. Rounding out the standings we have Lil Gorveatt at 12, Bruce Medcalfe Sr with 11 and Pearl Foster with 8.

Pearl Foster continues to be a solid lady performer for Carnarvon. At the present time she sports a fine 213 average and last week posted a 268 single and 711 triple. Bruce Medcalfe Sr tops the mens average with 223 followed by Ian Coltman at 212 and Art Beatty at 207.

DOUG ROBINSON HAS HOT NIGHT

One of the most improved bowlers at Carnarvon this season is Doug Robinson. Bowling in the Tuesday 9 p.m. league Doug rolled a super 194, 302, 320 for 821. Doug has improved his average to 248, second highest at the lanes.

League standings are Hits and Misses 63 pts, Wild Turkeys and George's Black Angels at 60, Odd Balls with 56 and Debbie's Team with 40.

On Sports

It's easy to forget the true value of American sports.

The rapid growth of professional and amateur competition during the past 20 years loosed a Frankenstein monster driven crazy by public hysteria over winning.

At least that's what some people think.

Nothing worthwhile survives the mindless tumult of batting averages, touchdowns, free throws, stick checks and left jabs.

Yeah? That's one view of it.

And blame the media — TV, radio, newspapers, magazines — for glamorizing and commercializing big-time athletics.

OK. Wait a minute.

That kind of criticism misses the point.

There is, of course, a certain way to appreciate sports without confusing form and substance.

Consider this piece of writing — from a short story titled "Rab and His Friends" — by John Brown (1810-1882), a Scottish physician:

"Dogs like fighting; old Isaac says they 'delight' in it, and for the best of all reasons; and boys are not cruel because they like to see the fight. They see three of the great cardinal virtues of dog or man — courage, endurance, and skill — in intense action ... it is a natural, and a not wicked, interest that all boys and men have in witnessing intense energy in action."

For what it's worth, Vince Lombardi was wrong.

Winning (fairly) isn't the only thing; it's the only goal.

Colin Kressler guest instructor

Ask Alma

Dear Alma:

I am 15 years old and I have a boyfriend whom I like very much. I'm sure many girls my age would consider me lucky, but for me this is causing some problems. These problems all relate to my parents who, being a bit strict, don't agree with the idea of their daughter going out with guys at my age. Now I have been dating him for the past three months and my parents don't know a word about it.

My boyfriend told me not to say anything to them because he knows that if I did they wouldn't let me go out with him anymore. I don't know what to do. If I tell them, I certainly will be in trouble and if I don't tell them I'll always have this guilty conscience. What should I do? — Worried Girlfriend

Dear Worried:

As you can see, corners are uncomfortable places to be stuck in. The sooner you get out, the better. You should tell your parents about your boyfriend and about your guilty conscience. Keep in mind that you have been untrustworthy and that they would be perfectly justified if they forbid you to date for a while. Perhaps, though, they will understand that you are ready to date (most girls are at your age) and they will let you see your boyfriend within the guidelines they establish. Good luck.

The fit never quit.

Information on OMHA and other hockey organizations

The Ontario Hockey Association (OHA) founded in 1890, is a non-profit organization whose objectives are: to foster and encourage the sport of amateur hockey within the territory under its control; to provide its youth with recreational hockey through competitions, playdowns and international hockey; to develop better coaches and referees; to provide assistance to all those interested in amateur hockey.

The OHA has three divisions: The Metropolitan Toronto Hockey league (MTHL); Northern Ontario Hockey Association (NOHA) and the Ontario Minor Hockey Association (OMHA).

These three divisions have the authority to administer amateur hockey in their respective areas as defined by the OHA. These include: Minor hockey, up to 18 years of age; Junior hockey, up to 20; Senior hockey, no age limit. Intermediate hockey, no limit.

Last year, the OHA and its three divisions had approximately 15,000 teams with a combined player registration of 250,000. Executives, coaches and management volunteers included another 100,000.

CONTINUING SERVICES

In 1972, as part of its educational program, the OHA instituted coaching and refereeing clinics for Ontario amateur hockey. For the 1976-77 season, 200 coaching clinics with 6,180 participants and 204 refereeing clinics with 7,071 participants were held throughout Ontario.

The OHA provide books, films, slides, and special assistance to all hockey associations, coaches, referees, players, parents and volunteers not affiliated with any of the four governing bodies.

FUNDING

Administration costs are kept to a minimum. The OHA and its three divisions only have three to four permanent staff members each to register players, coaches, management, trainers, assign game officials, set up individual team leagues, and playing schedules: and to provide a uniform set of playing rules and regulations.

The prime concern of the OHA and its divisions is escalating costs. Present revenues defer only some of these costs. Parents are supporting amateur hockey with their own time and approximately $500 per player which pays for equipment, registration fees and travel.

Master Jr. tournament set for Nov. 5 at Oshawa Lanes

CARNARVON — Each year the Carnarvon Lanes YBC program teams up two YBC Juniors, one boy and one girl, with each Master Bowler at Carnarvon and enters the Master Junior tournament.

This year instead of just two youngsters and one Master, Ron Robinson Sr., there will be four Masters and eight youngsters heading for Oshawa, to take part in the Master Junior tournament on Sunday, November 5th.

New Master Bowlers this year are Cliff Burke and Ronnie Robinson Jr. They will join Ron Sr. and Bill Korz at this year's event.

The teams will be as follows: Cliff Burke will bowl with Jeff Stamp and Barbara Adams; Ron Robinson Jr. will bowl with Nancy Conway and Kevin Warburton; Ron Robinson Sr. will team with Dale Allison and Doug Schell while Bill Korz will team up with Wendy Ballantyne and Scott Yake.

Each Master will bowl three games with each youngster on a handicap basis, with the total score of the 12 games to determine the champions. Beautiful trophies and crests will be awarded the first three teams.

Brampton man suffers minor injuries as car hit twice

DORSET — Andrew Inglis 20, of Brampton won't soon forget last Saturday evening. Inglis was westbound on Lower Fletcher Lake Road when he collided on the crest of a hill with another car driven by Erhard Scheeler 50, of Scarborough. Inglis' car was broadside on the road when another car, driven by John Durack 20, of Toronto came over the hill and struck him.

Inglis was taken to Minden hospital then transferred to Etobicoke General with a fractured knee cap. His car received $2000 damage in the first collision and another $1000 when Durack hit it. Durak's car received $800 in damage while the Scheeler vehicle has been set at $1500.—PC Al Barnes.

For the first time hockey fans throughout Canada and the United States will choose the starting line-up for a National Hockey League All-Star team — the one to meet the Soviets early next year. Balloting will take place from October to mid-January for the February 8, 10 and 11 series, described by Alan Eagleson, Executive Director of the National Hockey League Players' Association as "a true test of world hockey supremacy". The series is considered important enough to close down the normal NHL schedule for the week the games are played in New York. The balloting has been made possible by Wilkinson Sword Canada who, in co-operation with the NHL and NHLPA, will be distributing millions of ballots through all NHL arenas and thousands of supermarkets and retail stores wherever Wilkinson shaving products are sold. Fans vote by making a cross against any six selected players. There is no limit to the number of times a consumer can vote. Each ballot will carry the names of 80 NHL players nominated by a special panel of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association, and there will be space for write-ins. The players, some of whom are pictured here, will be listed alphabetically and by position.

Hunters think safety first

Once again the hunting season is here. OPP remind you that there are several basic gun-handling rules. Hunting accidents claim about 125 lives each year, usually because the most simple rules have been broken.

Never consume alcohol before or during a hunt; know the identifying features of the game you intend to hunt; Never shoot in the direction of buildings or livestock; you cannot depend on the common sense of the hunter beside you, wear bright orange.

The handling of firearms requires great care. Always handle a gun as if it were loaded; never climb a tree or fence with a loaded firearm; always carry your gun so that you control the direction of the muzzle; unattended firearms should always be unloaded; few hunting deaths are accidents, they are usually caused by negligence.

Don't be at either end of an "accident", use common sense measures and enjoy a safe hunting season.

Chinese typewriters are complex machines. The Hoang typewriter, produced in 1962, has 5,850 characters on a keyboard two feet wide by 17 inches high.

The inventor of the wrench was Moncke. Mispronunciation of his name produced the item's popular title: monkey wrench.

"Black Jack" Pershing earned his nickname for being an officer of the famous Negro 10th U.S. Cavalry regiment.

Denim, material usually associated with dungarees, got its name from Nimes, France, the city which developed the cloth. Originally it was known as serge de Nimes.

Although popular in England for several centuries, boxing was not established as a legal sport until 1901.

READS YOUR STARS

If you were born this week: You have a way with words and may have a talent for writing. You are likely to have more irons in the fire than you can adequately tend. Almost everything interests you and you have a zest for new ideas and experiences. You sometimes find it difficult to make choices.

ARIES (3-21/4-19): An unexpected call may seem to spell trouble. If you can both keep your temper and be very fair, you can turn it into a plus instead. Then, Aries, turn your attention to matters at home and you'll see the light.
TAURUS (4-20/5-20): Whether your financial activity involves loss or gain is largely a question of timing, Taurus. Follow your instincts and certain communications will bear many dividends. Finally, don't let a little spat with a family member turn into a major conflict. Be calm and cool.
GEMINI (5-21/6-20): Brighten up your own little corner of the world this week, Gem. Concentrate on others and on your current tasks at hand. Take time out for romance, listen to an older friend, and enrich your piggybank.
MOONCHILD (6-21/7-22): Your mind is likely teeming with all sorts of plans and concerns, Moonbeam. Go for a walk in the brisk autumn air and clear out some of the clutter. You'll be refreshed by the loss of that excess baggage and return ready to facet those jewels that remained with you!
LEO (7-23/8-22): Be sure to let loved ones in on your thoughts, Leo. You can't expect people to be mind-readers, you know! On the other side of the coin, you don't want to just hear others out; you want to really listen to what they have to say. Days close on key of D, for decision.
VIRGO (8-23/9-22): We all know that you're modest and unassuming, Virgo. And you can somehow have both those traits and still feel that you are absolutely right most of the time. (You manage to be correct about 99 percent of the time!) Try not to be too self-righteous, darling.
LIBRA (9-23/10-23): It's a busy week ahead, Libby. You have several appointments to keep and important banking needs to tend to. You can expect quite a bit of fluctuation on the greenback scene. Week closes with a bouquet and a boondoggle.
SCORPIO (10-24/11-22): The game this week could be manipulation. If you're as smart as I think you are, Scorp, you won't play on either side. Concentrate instead on your own personal matters and decisions. The sun enters your sign before week is out. Hurray! More about this next week.
SAGITTARIUS (11-23/12-21): A difference of opinion is very possible, Saj. Stick to your guns and be sure your sights are clean and lined up just right. Accept a certain situation for what it is, but don't worry about it. It's due to change.
CAPRICORN (12-22/1-19): Other people pop in and out all through your week, Cappy. Someone in your circle is apt to stretch your flexibility to its limits by leaving your mutual plans dangling until the very last second. Finally, snap!
AQUARIUS (1-20/2-19): You'd probably like nothing better than to turn your back on a particular problem and walk away. Hang in there, Aquari. You've much to lose if you go, and much to gain by staying. Circle your wagons and fight!
PISCES (2-20/3-20): Even with Cupid on your side, you're not sure you want to play. That's all right, my bashful pet, take your time — there's absolutely no rush and the fruit will be sweeter for the ripening. Week ends with a ring.
